CULTURAL EXPERIENCES!

When it comes to being unique and exclusive - Florida's cultural scene is inimitable. Whether it's taking in a festival, performing arts theatrical production or art viewing...there's nothing like experiencing Florida's arts and cultural scene up close & personal.

Must See Museums!

The South Florida Science Museum provides curious minds of all ages with an entertaining and educational journey through science and technology. Upcoming to the Museum is Science in Toyland, through September 12, 2010. Combining the fun of playing games with problem solving to demonstrate scientific principles and provides children with a rich mix of discovery and experimentation in a safe and dynamic environment. All museum visitors can become a construction worker and learn about shapes and pattern recognition, compete in the Tournament of Tops to experiment with inertia and center of gravity, or trigger a chain reaction in the Domino Challenge.

The historic Martin County Court House Cultural Center hosts fine arts exhibits featuring locally and nationally known artists. Home to the Arts Council, it serves as an arts and cultural information center. This 1937 WPA project is a rare example of post-depression Art Deco. The Arts Council also coordinates many events each year, including ArtsFest - a two day, riverfront fine arts, crafts and music festival and publishes MartinArts magazine with an event calendar and resources listings. www.martinarts.org

Located in Gainesville at the University of Florida Cultural Plaza, the Harn Museum of Art is one of the top 10 university art museums in the nation. Along with important traveling exhibits, the museum's permanent collections of more than 7,000 works feature African, Asian, modern and contemporary art and photography. www.harn.ufl.edu

The Charles Hosmer Morse Museum of American Art is home to the world's most comprehensive collection of works by Louis Comfort Tiffany. Located at 445 North Park Avenue in Winter Park, the Tiffany collection includes the designer's celebrated 1893 chapel interior as well as American art pottery, Arts and Crafts furnishings and late-19th and early-20th century American paintings. 407-645-5311 | www.morsemuseum.org

The Florida Holocaust Museum strives to eliminate prejudice and racism through education and human rights awareness programming. The museum helps the children of today face contemporary issues in a better informed and prepared manner.

At the core of their exhibit is a boxcar, in its original condition, used in Poland during World War II to deport innocent Jews to concentration camps. It serves as a reminder, and inspires visitors to learn from the past in order to be upstanders today. The Museum is located in the heart of the St. Petersburg museum and arts district. 727-820-0100 | www.flholocaustmuseum.org

At Ann Norton Sculpture Gardens visitors can journey throughout the gardens and view a unique collection of rare palms and native plants. Discover 9 monumental sculptures by Ann Norton made of brick and granite. Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, guests can view the home, studio, gardens and more than 100 works by the artist. The experience of coming across Norton's mysterious monoliths as surprises in their lush green jungle-like setting is akin to discovering another world. 561-832-5328 | www.ansg.org
