Apalachicola, known for its natural beauty and history, moves a little bit slower...and that's the way they like it.

The House of Tartts Guesthouse has three spacious guest rooms to choose from - or rent the entire house for a family gathering. Equally charming is the Carriage House, a self contained two bedroom cottage with a view of the river. These two beautifully restored guesthouses offer privacy, modern kitchens, porches with fans, laundry, TV's, and garden with grill.
