

Shouldn't Every Day Be This Good?

Located between the Gulf of Mexico and Pine Island Sound, Tween Waters Inn Island Resort boasts 13 picturesque acres of luxury resort including an extensive stretch of sugary, white-sand beach — named "America's Most Romantic Beach" by Travelocity.

What began as a collection of fishing cottages in 1931 now includes 137 quality accommodations including Guest Rooms, Gulf- and Bay-front Studios, Suites, to Historic Seaside Cottages. Decorated in a rustic luxury style, many of the 19 historic cottages are named after the resort's famous past visitors including Anne Morrow Lindbergh, J.N. "Ding" Darling and Theodore Roosevelt. Tween Waters Inn offers complimentary continental breakfast buffet, wireless internet and access to the newly remodeled fitness center. Tween Waters Inn features complete resort style, convenience and fun. Brides, grooms and everyone will enjoy the new Spa at Tween Waters Inn for a manicure, pedicure, hair styling, or a relaxing individual or couple's massage overlooking the property — a perfect place for bridal parties to prepare for the big event, or for the couple to spend a first relaxing afternoon. You can also opt for lounging at the Olympic-sized pool area with your tropical drink from the active Oasis Pool Bar, kayaking, boating, fishing, tennis and much more. And if you're in love with food, the Old Captiva House (rated Number One by travelers on TripAdvisor) is ideal for dinners or receptions (banquet facilities also available). And what's great about Tween Waters Inn is that not only is everything available in one location, from beach to bay, rehearsal to reception, but everything is available with a few clicks away at www.tween-waters.com. For more information and review from other brides and guests, the Tween Waters Inn Facebook page at www.Facebook.com/tweenwaters actively boasts thousands of satisfied brides, grooms and guests.
