PALM BEACH COUNTY

As a destination, Palm Beach County is the best way to experience Florida. Cultural opportunities that rival every major metropolis, exclusive designer shopping, 47 miles of Atlantic Coast beaches and an unparalleled collection of restaurants and bars.

Once a hot spot for discerning snowbirds to celebrate their social season, the area has been revitalized and reinvented as a friendly, affordable place that offers something for every member of the family. If it's been awhile since you've experienced this destination, the time is now to explore the many sides of Palm Beach County...

The Eco-Friendly side...Offering visitors an opportunity to "get back to nature." Palm Beach County is bordered by Lake Okeechobee and the Everglades and offers many natural attractions. The Grassy Water Preserve in West Palm Beach is a community conservation center, which includes two nature center pavilions, guided canoeing, hiking and biking. For some of the best views of the lake and surrounding ecosystem, visitors are encouraged to hike the Big Water Heritage Trail.

The shop-till-you-drop side...From world-famous designers on Worth Avenue including Tiffany, Gucci and Chanel to cosmopolitan outdoor shopping areas, Palm Beach County wrote the book on shopping.

One of the most inspired and admired downtown centers in the Nation, CityPlace, in downtown West Palm Beach, offers more than 100 eclectic and diverse shops and restaurants, a restored 1920s church adapted to serve as a multi-purpose cultural center, a 20-screen Muvico cinema complex, and stellar lineup of free weekend entertainment.

The Culinary side...Featuring over 2,000 restaurants, Palm Beach County will please even the most discriminating palate. Savor the taste of Celebrity Chef creations who include Michelle Bernstein at The Omphoy. True foodies will notice the flavors that emit from Vic and Angelo's in Delray Beach, which imports its ingredients directly from Italy. For a unique view, the Norton Museum of Art is home to Cafe 1451, offering visitors a truly special way to experience art through taste. Themed menu items are inspired by the current art exhibitions and continually change with the museum's rotating collections.

The Festive Side...Florida's largest waterfront art festival is SunFest, held annually in downtown West Palm Beach, the first week in May. The Delray Affair in Delray Beach is South Florida's oldest and largest outdoor arts, crafts and entertainment festival venues.

The Cultural Side...Palm Beach County is Florida's Cultural Capital and home to many museums, theatres and performing arts centers. One of the premier performing arts centers in America's Southeast is The Raymond F. Kravis Center for the Performing Arts, offering performances from classical to cutting-edge, including ballet, pop, jazz, Broadway and opera. Deemed a National Historic Landmark, the Flagler Museum in Palm Beach, is the home once belonging to Henry Flagler. His estate has been hailed "more magnificent than any other private dwelling in the world." On the contemporary side, Boca Raton

The Sporty side...Home to PGA tournaments, more than 160 private and public golf courses, world-class polo and equestrian events, the nation's best croquet, year-round tennis, the annual Marathon of the Palm Beaches and spring training of the St. Louis Cardinals and Florida Marlins, Palm Beach County is a must-do destination for any sports enthusiast.

With 47 miles of coastline and the second largest freshwater lake in the country, water adventures are equally as fun in Palm Beach County as it features ideal areas to fish, kayak, canoe or, simply play in the sand.

The sleepy side...Renown throughout the world for its luxury hotels, resorts and bed and breakfasts, Palm Beach County offers more than 16,000 guestrooms, within every budget.

Legendary to the area is The Breakers Hotel. After a recent completion of a 15-year, $250 million revitalization, this world-famous resort features eight restaurants, four bars, 26 holes of championship golf, 10 tennis courts and a 20,000-square-foot spa. Science in Toyland utilizes toys to demonstrate scientific principles and encourages museum guests to experiment. This exhibition combines the fun of playing games with problem solving to foster a positive attitude towards science, and provides children with a rich mix of discovery and experimentation in a safe and dynamic environment.
