Only the new Memorial Causeway Bridge separates Clearwater from Clearwater Beach and the Gulf beaches. Oak lined avenues and streets run along gentle sloping terrain throughout this third largest metro area in the Tampa Bay region.

Clearwater Beach is #1 city beach in the Gulf region; not to mention a Blue Wave Beach. The island is the most popular of all the area's many beaches, especially with families. Clearwater Beach offers just about every water and beach activity imaginable. Pier 60 Park on Clearwater Beach features a family recreation complex on Clearwater's expansive beach with covered playgrounds, fishing and concessions. The Sunsets at Pier 60 festival features music, entertainment and a beautiful Gulf of Mexico sunset throughout the year from two hours before sunset until two hours after.
