

PHASE III

COURTESY OF GREATER NAPLES MARCO ISLAND & THE EVERGLADES CVB

Providing only the finest properties in Naples

Nestled along the sun-drenched beaches of the Gulf of Mexico, yet tucked far enough away from any hustle and bustle, the beach community of Naples is renown for offering visitors and locals a destination highlighted by world class boutique shopping, dining, stunning art galleries, and abundant, challenging golf courses.

It is also only steps away from island seclusion or, the untamed tropical wilderness of The Everglades.

Phase III Real Estate Services and Vanderbilt Vacations has been providing only the finest properties in Naples for more than 20 years, at a cost that's affordable to visitors and a service that's second-to-none.

Property selections include spacious efficiencies, luxury condominiums highlighted with a security entrance, modern furnishings, tennis facilities, and private balconies with breathtaking views. Many properties offer direct beach access or, are within walking distance to area beaches.

So whether you're wanting to get away to Naples for the week, month or an entire season, Phase III accommodates.

Those who can't imagine leaving this ideal destination can depend on the full-service real estate and/or property management services that Phase III and Vanderbilt Vacations offers.

"We're proud to be members of the Naples Board of Realtors and the Naples Area Chamber of Commerce. Together we have a united goal to make a traveler's visit in "paradise" the best that it could possibly be", said Fran Parker, Broker/Owner.
