

Retire to Vero Beach

Now is your time to discover quiet elegance on FLORIDA'S TREASURE COAST

For those in retirement or looking to retire, Vero Beach has so much to offer - and the weather and swaying palm trees are just the start. The area's access to the Intracoastal Waterway makes boating, fishing, diving, and surfing quite popular here.

Add to this a list of challenging public golf courses, theatres, art galleries, quaint seaside bistros and shopping make Vero Beach highly attractive to retirees with any number of interests. Here, it's easy to take the grandkids snorkeling or to see the nearby Kennedy Space Center.

Luckily, retiring in Vero Beach is easy, too. Indian River Estates is one of Vero Beach's best known retirement communities. Sitting on a large 100-acre gated campus just minutes from the beaches and downtown Vero Beach, Indian River Estates is a smart combination of the exciting aspects of retiring to Florida with the common sense security of an accredited continuing care retirement community.

A range of living options is available, from 2-bedroom single family homes with garages to 1-, 2- and 3-bedroom apartments, as well as two main clubhouses with formal and casual dining venues, fitness facilities, activities and entertainment. There are also two outdoor heated pools, a large fishing lake, tennis court, miniature golf course and so much more.

Complimenting the tropical campus setting and the lifestyle amenities, the community offers a comprehensive Type A life care program that includes a range of health care services on-site such as assisted living and skilled care.

Indian River Estates is owned and operated by ACTS Retirement-Life Communities, a company with nearly 40 years of experience in providing an exceptional lifestyle to seniors. Perhaps most importantly, Indian River Estates is accredited by the Continuing Care Accreditation Commission (CARF-CCAC), an accolade that puts this retirement community among the best in the nation.
