HOLLYWOOD

Visitors to Hollywood, situated only 10 minutes from Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood International Airport and 20 minutes from Miami International Airport, know they deserve more than just sun and sand during their getaways.

These travelers want activity, culture, mouthwatering dining choices and luxury accommodations...all at a reasonable price...and Hollywood doesn't disappoint.

Unique to the area is Florida's only completely auto-free oceanfront promenade, the 2.5-mile Broadwalk, framed by quaint seaside inns with kitchenettes, boutique hotels and luxury resorts in addition to charming cafes, restaurants and shops. Named one of America's top 10 nostalgic promenades by USA Today, the Broadwalk is home to year-round live entertainment and cultural events.

If culture piques your interest, the ArtsPark at Young Circle is an innovative 10-acre urban park featuring large-scale public art pieces by such acclaimed visionaries as Japan's Ritsuko Taho and South Florida resident Romero Britto. The facility includes classrooms and workshop studios, exhibit and performance space, and a full schedule of cultural programming for every taste.

Featuring an eclectic array of eateries, from bistros and charming cafes to lively jazz clubs, Hollywood's vibrant downtown area is highlighted by restaurants offering

Sugar Reef Tropical Grill

Inspired by warm ocean breezes and turquoise waters, Chef Patrick Farnault and his wife Robin Segar brought together their passion for tropical surroundings and wonderful food to create Sugar Reef. Highlighted with colors and flavors of the tropics commingled with Patrick's traditional French training, patrons of Sugar Reef are treated to a diverse and memorable dining experience. Locals and visitors are encouraged to enjoy their celebratory events or a romantic night out for two while Sugar Reef surrounds them with breathtaking water views, great food and extensive wine offerings.

The restaurant is open (seasonally) for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Reservations are recommended.
