VERO BEACH Museum of Art

772-231-0707

www.verobeachmuseum.org

Celebrated Cultural Gem

The Vero Beach Museum of Art is the largest accredited art institution on Florida's Treasure Coast. Opening in 1986, the Museum remains the most celebrated cultural gem in the region.

This 55,412 sq. ft. art facility features major art galleries, children's gallery, studio gallery, a 1.5 acre sculpture park, sculpture garden and fountain, Museum Art School, art library, outdoor studio and foundry, auditorium, great hall, Museum Store, cafe, exceptional youth, family, and community cultural events, and a variety of celebrated public programs of lectures, seminars, and workshops.

Situated on seven acres of Indian River County's scenic 54 acre Riverside Park on the east bank of the Indian River lagoon, the Museum and educational institution provides cultural leadership and enrichment for the public through a wide variety of educational, studio art and humanities programs; a diversity of quality exhibitions; and the collection, preservation and presentation of important American and international works of art.

Current Museum exhibitions include PAINTING THE ITALIAN LANDSCAPE: Views from the Uffizi through March 15, 2009; BODY LANGUAGE: The Figure in Sculpture through May 24, 2009, MARC PETROVIC: Navigators through May 10, 2009; and Contemporary Still Life from the Permanent Collection through August 9, 2009.

The Vero Beach Museum of Art is located in Riverside Park, Vero Beach. For information about programs, art exhibitions, special events, and studio classes, please call or visit their Website. ✲