

Beaches!

Which sand is best for you?

When it comes to finding the best beach - the first question you need to ask yourself is what kind of mood am I in?

From the sexy sands of South Beach to the quiet and almost isolated barrier islands along the Gulf Coast - Florida provides its visitors with sand for every spirit... have fun discovering your ideal locale!

>>East Coast

>Atlantic Beach A beach village featuring unique shopping and dining with about two miles of white beach. All access points have outdoor showers and are handicapped accessible. Lifeguards are on duty from Memorial Day through Labor Day. • Pet Friendly

>St. Augustine Beach Beachside bars, dining, water sport rentals and activity are the main attractions at this popular hot spot! Surprising to many visitors is the ability to drive along this stretch of beach. There are numerous access points and a 10 mph speed limit is strictly enforced. • Drive on the Beach • Pet Friendly • Picnic shelter • Fishing Pier

>Daytona Beach Possibly one of the most legendary

beaches in Florida. Popular for its driving capabilities due to the hard packed sand, visitors can enjoy an abundance of activity and crowds. A 10 mph speed limit is strictly enforced. • Beach fishing • Fishing pier • Drive on the Beach

>Cocoa Beach Situated an hour's drive from Orlando, surfers from around the world flock to these shores to experience memorable waves! A lifeguard is on duty from April through Labor Day. • Fishing Pier • Beach fishing • Surfing

>John D. MacArthur Beach State Park This park preserves the largest remaining example of a tropical maritime hammock in Palm Beach County. Although kayaking and canoeing are common, the two-mile beach provides great opportunities for swimming and snorkeling. • Beach fishing • Nature trails • Outdoor showers • Picnic shelter

>Hollywood Beach Boasting the area's hottest "Broadwalk", Hollywood Beach has reinvented itself as a definite beach hot spot! From outdoor beach theatres to shopping, they've thought of everything.

- Picnic Shelters • Outdoor showers • Beach fishing • Year-round lifeguards
- >Lummus Park This is the heart of South Beach. While it's not uncommon to see topless sunbathing, this beach is more commonly known for bronzed and beautiful sunbathers. • Outdoor showers

>>Gulf Coast

- >Pensacola Beach Historically known as Casino Beach, this fun beach features nearby water sport rentals, wide-open white sand beaches and outdoor entertainment. • Beach fishing • Fishing pier
- >Panama City Beach Although a Spring Break Mecca, during the rest of the year Panama City Beach turns into a quieter area with 26 miles of sparkling white beach. • Fishing pier • Outdoor showers
- >St. George Island The island features miles of uncrowded beaches, clear Gulf waters and pristine marshes for wildlife viewing. Occupying the far eastern end of the island, is St. George Island State Park. • Pet Friendly • Fishing
- >Caledesi Island One of the few remaining natural islands along Florida's Gulf Coast. Deemed the Number One Beach in America by renowned Dr. Beach, a leading authority on sand, Caledesi is a must see for any beach enthusiast! Transportation to the island is via ferry from Honeymoon Island or private boat. • Boat docks • Picnic Shelters • Showers • Beach fishing • Nature Trails • Kayak rentals
- >Clearwater Beach Visitors travel from throughout the world to experience this beach's nightly sunset at Pier 60. The beach features restroom facilities and soft white-sand beaches. • Outdoor shower • Good for small children • Fishing pier
- >Fort De Soto County Park Comprised of five barrier islands, the seven-mile Fort De Soto Beach and historic fort is repeatedly ranked as one of the nation's best beaches. Two expansive areas feature a pet beach, campground, and lagoon with safe swimming on a wide, flat beach. • Picnic shelters • Good for Small Children • Beach fishing • Developed campground • Nature Trails
- >Siesta Key Public Beach Amid a small beachy atmosphere, Siesta Key boasts the whitest sands in the world! A very active beach with an abundance of water sport rentals, volleyball courts and parasailing. • Outdoor shower • Good for small children • Beach fishing • Picnic shelter
- >Turner Beach Located on the south end of Captiva Island, this beach provides the sun worshipper with quiet areas and breathtaking sunsets. Most visitors take to
