

Condos by Sirata

GULF COAST GETAWAY

The Central West coast of Florida draws visitors, of all genres, to its breathtaking scenery and plethora of activity. From five-star dining to raucous beach fun, when it comes to a destination that has it all none other can beckon weary travelers like St. Pete/Clearwater.

And when it comes to choosing an accommodation that perfectly fits your traveling party, the convenience and spacious accommodations provided by Condos by Sirata are unsurpassed.

As one of the premiere condominium rental agencies for the Gulf Coast, Condos by Sirata exceed their guest's expectations by offering innovative and thoughtful touches in their units including private waterview balconies, onsite sport courts, spa services, and much more.

In addition to their more than 45 years within the hospitality industry, resort guests can expect their questions answered and unsurpassable service throughout the duration of their stay.

For beachfront luxury, travelers can choose from the large selection of vacation properties at Condos by Sirata including the Beso Del Sol, a newly-renovated property that overlooks Clearwater Bay in Dunedin. Each finely-appointed unit features fully-equipped kitchens and are within minutes to the pristine, white sand beaches of Caladesi Island (recently rated #1 beach in the country) and Honeymoon Island. In fact, guests of the resort can take advantage of the resort's ferry service to the islands.

For guests wanting fun in the sun, the newly built Madeira Bay Resort, located just two blocks north of the action of John's Pass Village, overlooks the serene Intracoastal Waterway. Each suite comes equipped with a complete kitchen, full-size appliances, including washer and dryer, granite kitchen countertops, cookware, dishes and silverware. In addition, all suites feature a furnished balcony. Onsite, guests can take advantage of the lavish spa, heated pool, hot tub, and recreation area.

Condos by Sirata and it's sister property the tropical Sirata Beach Resort & Conference Center are renown throughout Central West Florida for their casual elegance and value. *

Condos by Sirata
(877) 4-SIRATA | www.condosbysirata.com