

ARABIAN Nights

Beautiful horses, dazzling costumes, heart-stopping acrobatics and a fabulous three-course meal are only the beginning of an unforgettable night of entertainment at Arabian Nights.

Whether guests enjoy the current show; A Tale of Two Genies, or the Holiday Show; Scheherazade's Wish, they will enjoy a spectacular performance by more than 60 gorgeous horses and their riders.

In A Tale of Two Genies, Princess Scheherazade's birthday comes to life in astonishing fashion when two powerful genies conjure a variety of entertainment; including Gypsy bareback riders, Spanish Toreadors, Western Square Dance riders, the Ben Hur chariot race, and an appearance by Walter Farley's legendary Black Stallion.

The Arabian Nights Holiday Show, Scheherazade's Wish, will run from November 24, 2009 through January 3, 2010. Guests join Princess Scheherazade, faithful genie Hocus Pocus, and new friend Santa Claus, as Toy Soldiers, Gingerbread Men, Acrobatic Elves, Sugarplum Fairies, aerial acrobat Jack Frost and many more characters come to life in a show unlike any other.

When attending either show, guests choose their meal from several options. Sirloin steak, Black Angus chopped steak or grilled chicken breast are all served with dinner rolls, steamed vegetables and mashed potatoes. Children's chicken tenders with macaroni & cheese and Vegan/Vegetarian Lasagna are also available. Each meal also includes a house salad, unlimited soft drinks, Busch beer and house wine during the show and Chef's Choice of Dessert.

Guests can also purchase the VIP package at Arabian Nights, which includes guaranteed seating in the front three rows, a tour of the stables, and a meet and greet with the horses and performers from the show.
