WALT DISNEY WORLD Captain EO Returns!

The classic musical spectacular that thrilled Epcot guests from 1986-1994, has returned. The attraction's return provides new audiences the opportunity to experience the original 3-D production for the very first time, as well as a nostalgic look back for longtime fans wanting to see Michael Jackson in a rare performance created for the big screen. Twenty-four years ago, Jackson joined forces with Disney, producer George Lucas and director Francis Ford Coppola

Gatorland is soaring to new heights in Central Florida as the theme park opens the world's first zip line to race above giant alligators and crocodiles.

to create a groundbreaking 17-minute 3-D film experience starring Jackson as Captain EO performing two original songs, and featuring Academy Award®-winning actress Anjelica Huston, and a cast of merry, mythical space characters with dual personalities who undergo magical transformations to become Jackson's electronic band in conquering the forces of darkness.

"Captain EO" will be presented multiple times daily at the Imagination pavilion at Epcot. It will replace "Honey, I Shrank the Audience" which is planned to return at an undetermined date. www.waltdisneyworld.com

ORLANDO Gatorland

Gatorland is soaring to new heights in Central Florida as the theme park opens the world's first zip line to race above giant alligators and crocodiles in the all new Eco Zip Line at Gatorland opening in the Fall 2010.

This one-of-a-kind ride takes you on a breathtaking journey along 1,200 feet of high flying adventure from platforms designed to replicate the Breeding Marsh Tower.

At heights up to 56 feet, guests will fly at speeds near 30 miles per hour through the park! An adrenaline rush guaranteed to bring out the true adventurer in everyone. The Eco Zip Line at Gatorland will carry the brave riders along four intense zip lines, ranging from 230 ft to more than 485 feet over some of the most exciting exhibits at Orlando's only theme park with "Bite & Attitude." On just your second leg of the journey, you'll soar above the theme park's collection of jumping Cuban Crocodiles.

What's up next? A bird's eye view of the Alligator Breeding Marsh featuring over 150 giant alligators watching your every move! www.gatorland.com

WALT DISNEY WORLD

Victoria & Albert's at Disney's Grand Floridian Resort & Spa

True Disney foodies know you haven't arrived until you've dined at the creme de la creme of restaurants - Victoria & Albert's at Disney's Grand Floridian Resort & Spa. But now the top-rated dining room has a new "must do": the gorgeous Queen Victoria's Room. Queen Victoria's Room is behind closed doors just off the main dining room. With just four tables, restaurant manager Israel Perez promises attention to your every whim. They've brought back French gueridon service - a gueridon is a fancy rolling cart that goes from table to table for customized service and "wow" factor - a flourish of Himalayan sea salt atop your filet, a decadent wine sauce or a lavish display of cheese, for instance. You'll float out the door with a long-stemmed rose for women and personalized menus for everyone to carry home. Cost for Queen Victoria's Room is $200 per person, plus $95 for wine pairings. The restaurant has its own reservation line, 407-939-3862.

Busch Gardens

It is a remarkable year for Busch Gardens as Elmo, Big Bird and all their friends arrive at Sesame Street Safari of Fun. To commemorate this new signature attraction's premiere, Busch Gardens is offering a free Commemorative Busch Gardens Preschool Pass to kids ages 5 and younger during 2010, so kids can take advantage of all the fun and adventures Sesame Street Safari of Fun has to offer.

The signature attraction is filled with kid-size rides, cool water fun, shows and memorable adventures that celebrate the spirit of Africa.

In addition to the rides and play areas, families can share breakfast or lunch with Elmo and friends in a brand-new dining facility adjacent to the Sesame Street Safari of Fun area and view "Sesame Street Presents: Lights, Camera, Imagination!" in the park's 4-D theater, located in Timbuktu. For general park information, call 1-888-800-5447, or visit the interactive Web site at www.buschgardens.com.

WINTER HAVEN

Legoland

Winter Haven Florida opens in the fall of 2011 and will be the biggest LEGOLAND Park to ever open offering a unique mix of more than 50 rides, shows and attractions, including spectacular LEGO® models. Signature attractions will include: City - featuring a driving school where children earn their first "driver's license;" Imagination Zone - where children can build on their imagination and race cars against each other; DUPLO Play Area - ideal for toddlers; Factory Tour - a first hand look at how LEGO bricks are made from factory to finish; Castle Hill - a medieval area feature an indoor/outdoor roller coaster; and Dino Land - where guests take a trip to prehistoric times. LEGOLAND will provide a full-day, year-round theme park experience geared toward families with children ages 2-12. LEGOLAND Florida will mirror the successful concept of the four existing LEGOLAND Parks in Denmark, Germany, UK and California. However, as with the other four, it will also have its own unique "twist" reflecting its stunning location and adding a Florida flavor. www.legoland-floridaresort.com
